BIOGRAPHY

Jennifer Stolie brings 23 years of legal experience to her mediation practice. Her general civil litigation and regulatory experience includes medical malpractice, products liability, toxic torts, and healthcare provider matters including regulatory compliance, licensure, enrollment, and fraud and abuse. She represented physicians and other health care providers, hospitals, health care organizations and businesses in regulatory, administrative, and judicial proceedings.

In addition, for over 12 years she served as board counsel and general counsel to the Louisiana Attorney Disciplinary Board as well as general counsel to the Louisiana State Board of Medical Examiners, where she handled licensure matters, licensee discipline, administrative hearings, rulemaking, legislation, and managed agency response to state legislative performance audits.

Prior to attending law school, she worked for seven years in advertising, marketing and corporate communications in New York and New Orleans.

Jennifer received her formal mediation training at the University of Texas School of Law's Center for Public Policy Dispute Resolution and is included in the Louisiana Register of Qualified Civil Mediators pursuant to La. Rev. Stat §9:4106. In 2025 she completed specialty training in trauma-informed advocacy principles for legal professionals working with survivors of sexual abuse. She currently serves as a deputy special master for the 24th JDC for all property damage cases related to Hurricane Ida.
